

62A-5-403 Services for persons under 11 years of age.

- (1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), after June 30, 1996, the division may not provide residential services to persons with disabilities who are under 11 years of age.
- (2) The prohibition of Subsection (1) does not include residential services that are provided:
 - (a) for persons in the custody of the Division of Child and Family Services;
 - (b) under a plan for home-based services, including respite and temporary residential care or services provided by a professional parent under contract with the division; or
 - (c) after a written finding by the director that out-of-home residential placement is the most appropriate way to meet the needs of the person with disabilities and his family.
